BEDROOMS

Bell tents, with Tibetan blankets on the floor, as well as ground sheets. We include sleeping bags, liner sheets, and Tibetan blankets, this time to put on top. The Premium decoration is not set up. As many as 6 people can sleep in one tent.

DINNING ROOM (only for dinner)*

Up to 6 people, dinner takes place in the same tent as the bedroom. From 7 people onwards, dinner takes place in a separate tent, on clothed table, with a chandelier, but without special decoration and comfort.

MEALS

Western style breakfast with Tibetan bread/jam/butter/porridge/yogurt/tea/coffee. Picnic style lunches and full 2 courses dinners with a starter, and a main dish, all served in simple enameled dishes. A bottle of reasonable wine is opened for each dinner

TEA TIME

Tea served with some biscuits outside, sat on little stools.

APÉRITIF

Local beers, aperitif biscuits and local charcuteries.

- COMMON POINTS -

ITINERARY

- > 4 days and 3 nights
- > 63 km
- > same trails and campsites

ACCOMPANIMENT

- > Always the presence of at least 1 foreigner guide.

- MAJOR DIFFERENCES -

NUMBER OF PEOPLE PER TENT

- > In Premium, you can choose to be only two or more in one tent, but in Light, it is not possible: if your group is made of 4 people, then you have to be 4 in 1 tent, except if you pay the 2 person price.

NUMBER OF HORSE

- > The quantity of material brought in Light is much less important than Premium which decrease the number of horse of the caravan about 1/3rd.

COMFORT AND DECORATION

- > of the bedroom
- > of the dining room
- > of the tea time and aperitif corner

QUALITY OF THE WINE / TEA TIME / APERITIF

- > see the above description in the previous pages
